This book will help take you far into the intricacies of a 2200+ chess level. Finally coming to what is arguably the best endgame book ever written, we have Dvoretsky's masterful Endgame Manual. Although the word Manual implies to many a basic level, this book is one that most Grand Masters out there can learn from. Most importantly, even though it's not for absolute beginners it does span the Beginner-Advanced continuum in a way that no other book that I know does.
