Globalization has had its impacts on world cross-border flows e.g flow of capital. There has been an increase in international economic activity which has expanded world trade and general capital flow. Goods are flowing across national borders easily through reduced trade barriers and new transportation methods.

Impact of Globalisation on Nation Borders

But the opening up of the world thanks to technology and other factors like simpler regulation means we don't need to stay within the borders of the country in which we were born. It's even possible to be an e-Resident of a country. Being a 'global citizen' is no longer reserved for the global elite.
