The vision of modern dance : in the words of its creators ...

Modern dance is a broad genre of western concert or theatrical dance, primarily arising out of Germany and the United States in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.. Modern dance is often considered to have emerged as a rejection of or rebellion against, classical ballet.Socioeconomic and cultural factors also contributed to its development.

Modern dance - Wikipedia

Born in the early 20th century, modern dance is a dance style that focuses on a dancer's own interpretations instead of structured steps, as in traditional ballet dancing. Modern dancers reject the limitations of classical ballet and favor movements derived from the expression of their inner feelings.
